

Apparel Autobagger Mailer Film

The Apparel Autobagger operates by transporting product on a belt between two rolls of film - top and bottom. The mailing label is printed on the top film and then the top and bottom are sealed together surrounding the product. The mailers will be right-sized in both directions.

Some of our customers choose very simple designs. Others take a much more colorful approach.

Either way, your customer will be delighted when their package arrives!

